Regulations for Exhibit Space

Contract for Space – This application for space, formal notice of assignments by SCAHPERD and the full payment of rental charges constitute a contract for the right to use the space. In the event of fire, strikes, or other uncontrollable circumstances rendering the exhibit area unfit or unavailable, or causing the exhibit to be canceled ten (10) days or more prior to the opening date of such contract, this contract will not be binding and payments on account of exhibit rental will be refunded. Conference booth will be assigned when full payment has been received.

Payments for Space – Applications must be accompanied by deposit of $250.00 per space made payable to SCAHPERD. The balance is due October 28, 2022. Balances not fully paid by this date will forfeit the deposit and space. Cancellations made by October 28, 2022 will receive a refund, less a $50.00 service charge.

Use of Space – All companies making direct sales must comply with local licensing and tax regulations. All sales activities must be confined to the limits for the space. No exhibitor shall assign, sublet, or share the space allocated without the knowledge and consent of SCAHPERD conference manager. No exhibitor is permitted to show goods other than those manufactured or dealt with by him/her in the regular course of business. Displays shall not be placed so as to block, shield, or interfere in any way with other exhibitors. All exhibit materials must remain within the boundaries of the exhibit booth.

Circulation and Solicitations – Distribution of circulars or promotional material may be made only within the space assigned to the exhibitor.

Liability and Insurance – SCAHPERD or the hotel management or any officer or staff member will not be responsible for the safety of property of the exhibitors from theft, damage by fire, accident, or other causes, but will use reasonable care to protect the exhibitors from such loss. Exhibitors wishing to insure their goods must do so at their own expense.

Fire Protection – Flammable space decorations must be flame proofed. All hangings must clear the floor. Electrical wiring must conform to National Electrical Code Safety Rules. Exhibitors must comply with all city fire regulations.

Noise-Making Exhibits – Exhibits which include the operation of musical instruments, radios, public address systems, or any noise-making machines must be conducted or arranged so that the noise resulting from the demonstrations will not annoy or disturb adjacent exhibitors and their patrons or interfere with conference programs.

Motion Picture Projection – As agreed by the associated exhibitors of SCAHPERD, the showing of motion pictures or slides in the spaces must be limited in size so as not to disturb adjacent exhibitors.

Rules and Regulations – All exhibitors must abide by the rules and regulations established by the facility management, including agreements with official contractors and labor unions.

Electricity - Access to an electrical outlet will be provided if paid and requested in advance. Exhibitor must bring their own extension cord. The electrical fee covers plugging in a laptop, however an extra fee may be charged by the hotel for TV's, monitors, and high audio visual displays. Access to Wi-Fi is not included by the hotel.

Shipping of Equipment – Arrangement for shipping of equipment and materials should be handled by the exhibitor using an outside distributor. SCAHPERD can provide information for local companies. NO equipment or materials should be shipped directly to Embassy Suites. Embassy Suites will charge a service fee for any materials shipped directly to the hotel. We use Convention Makers and will send information closer to the date.

THESE REGULATIONS become a part of the contract between the exhibitor and SCAHPERD. They have been formulated for the best interest of all exhibitors and SCAHPERD respectfully asks for the full cooperation of the exhibitor in the observance.

I have read and agree to abide by all regulations of this contract.
