CONSTITUTION

Article I

Name and Affiliations

Section 1.

The name of this organization shall be the South Carolina Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance. (SCAHPERD)

Section 2.

SCAHPERD is organized as a constituent state organization of the Society of Health and Physical Educators (SHAPE America) and the SHAPE America Southern District.

Article II

Purpose

The purpose of SCAHPERD shall be to unite in one organization associations engaged in and desirous of promoting dance, fitness, health, physical education, recreation, sport, athletics and wellness and any other professionally related field; to provide a structure that allows members of diverse interests to pursue common goals through SCAHPERD and specific professional interest through their respective associations. Outcomes should include but are not limited to the following:

- A governing unit for decisions affecting all associations;
- A facilitation of communication among associations, with other professional groups and to the general public;
- A forum to speak for all of the interests within the SCAHPERD;
- An increase in the ability to impact political/legislative matters pertinent to the SCAHPERD constituency;
- A cohesion among the composite units that comprise SCAHPERD; a mutual respect and support for one another in spite of their diversity.

Article III

Membership

Section 1.

Any person engaged in or interested in health, physical education, recreation, dance, fitness, sport, athletics and wellness (hereafter noted as HPERDFSAW) in the state of South Carolina may apply for membership.

Section 2. Classification of Membership

Membership of SCAHPERD shall be classified as Professional, Retired, Future Professional, Affiliate, Honorary Life, Guest and Reciprocal. The membership year shall be for one, two or three calendar years from the date of payment of dues.

Article IV

SCAHPERD Committees

Section 1. Standing Committees

There shall be the following Standing Committees of SCAHPERD appointed by the SCAHPERD President with the approval of the Board of Directors. Members shall be appointed for three years on a rotating basis where appropriate. Each committee shall have an Operating Code approved by the Board of Directors.

- a. Advocacy Committee. This committee shall identify and provide advocacy for legislative issues relating to the broad interests of this SCAHPERD and its constituent community. This work should be coordinated with appropriate SCAHPERD committees. The committee shall be composed of one representative from each association and up to three at-large members. The chair shall be appointed by the SCAHPERD President. The President shall serve as an ex-officio member of the committee. The Executive Director shall serve as a non-voting member of the committee.
- b. Conference Program Planning Committee. This committee shall plan, organize, and conduct the annual conference of SCAHPERD. The membership of the Conference Program Planning Committee shall be the SCAHPERD Past President, SCAHPERD President-Elect, each Association's Past President, the Future Professionals advisor, and the Executive Director who shall serve as a nonvoting member. The SCAHPERD Past President shall serve as Chair. The President-Elect shall serve as vice chair of the Conference Program Planning Committee. The President shall serve as an ex-officio member of the committee.

- c. Constitution Committee. This committee shall study the Constitution and By-Laws and propose such amendments as seem desirable. All Operating Codes shall be reviewed and edited by this Committee before they are presented to the Board of Directors for approval. This Committee shall also review proposed amendments to the Constitution and By-Laws of each association to ensure that the proposed changes are in agreement with the SCAHPERD Constitution and By-Laws. The Committee shall be composed of representatives of each association, the SCAHPERD President-elect, and shall be chaired by the SCAHPERD parliamentarian. The President shall serve as an ex-officio member of the committee. The Executive Director shall serve as a non-voting member of the committee.
- d. Executive Committee. This committee shall be charged to carry out the business of the Board of Directors in the absence of Board approval. Actions of this committee shall be brought forward at the next Board meeting for Board affirmation. The Executive Committee shall consist of the SCAHPERD President, who serves as chair, SCAHPERD President-Elect and the SCAHPERD Past President. The Executive Director, the Finance Committee Chair, and the Parliamentarian shall serve as non-voting members.
- e. Finance Committee. This committee shall prepare the annual SCAHPERD budget and review all fiscal matters pertaining to SCAHPERD and its substructures and shall submit a balanced budget to the Board of Directors for approval. This committee shall consist of the SCAHPERD President, SCAHPERD President-Elect, SCAHPERD Past President and representatives from each association, as determined by the Board of Directors, who have had some experience in dealing with the business affairs of SCAHPERD. The chair of this committee shall be appointed by the President. The Executive Director shall be a non-voting member.
- f. Honors and Awards Committee. This committee shall appraise the professional work of people in the State of South Carolina who have made outstanding contributions to the fields of HPERDFSAW and, at the annual conference of SCAHPERD, present as recipient(s) for Honor Awards the names of individuals who merit this honor. The President shall appoint the chair and committee members with representation from SCAAHE, SCAPES, and SCDA. The majority of the committee and the committee chair shall be past Honor Award recipients, when possible. The President shall serve as an ex-officio member of the committee.
- g. Membership Committee. This committee shall promote membership by contacting persons who are professionally involved in HPERDFSAW in the State of South Carolina. It shall assist in any way possible to further the growth of SCAHPERD. The committee shall be composed of representatives of each association. The chair shall be appointed by the SCAHPERD President. The President shall serve as an ex-officio member of the committee.

- h. Nominating Committee. The Committee shall be responsible for selecting the candidates and for coordinating the election procedures for SCAHPERD. The membership of the Nominating Committee shall consist of the SCAHPERD immediate Past President and the Presidents of the Associations. The SCAHPERD immediate Past President shall serve as chair. The President does not serve on this committee.
- i. Public Relations Committee. This committee shall promote the goals and objectives of SCAHPERD and inform the public of SCAHPERD activities in the state of South Carolina. It shall arrange for all types of media coverage of the annual conference and other activities in the state. The committee shall be composed of representatives of each association. The chair shall be appointed by the SCAHPERD President. The President shall serve as an ex-officio member of the committee.
- j. SCAHPERD Scholar Committee. This committee shall be responsible for selecting the SCAHPERD Scholar. It shall consist of three (3) members appointed by the President for three-year terms. These members must be previous Scholar Award recipients. Should three previous Scholars not be available, members must be from among current Association Presidents. The chair shall be appointed by the SCAHPERD President. The President shall serve as an ex-officio member of the committee.
- k. Scholarship Committee. This committee shall review applicants for SCAHPERD scholarships and submit recommendations on the basis of merit and need to the Board of Directors for approval. The committee shall be composed of representatives of each association. The chair shall be appointed by the SCAHPERD President. The President shall serve as an ex-officio member of the committee.
- l. Strategic Planning Committee. This committee shall recommend long and short-range plans to the Board of Directors consistent with the purposes of SCAHPERD as outlined in Article II of the Constitution. It shall bring together ideas from the associations and the state membership and translate them into a logical format as the basis for action by the Board of Directors. Each association shall have one member on the SPC. The SPC chair shall be appointed by the President and shall serve as an at-large member. There may be up to three additional at-large members. The SCAHPERD President shall appoint all members based on recommendations from each association. The SCAHPERD President shall serve as an ex-officio member. The SCAHPERD President-Elect, Past President, Future Professionals Advisor, Parliamentarian, and Executive Director shall serve as non-voting members.
- m. The South Carolina Physical Education Assessment Program Policy Board (SCPEAP). This committee shall serve as the policymaking board for the assurance of sound management of the statewide physical education assessment program. It shall consist of members appointed by the SCAHPERD President who have agreed to serve in positions designated by the Operating Code. The Program Director shall chair the committee. The President shall serve as an ex-officio member of the committee.

Section 2. Ad Hoc Committees

Ad Hoc Committees shall be appointed by the President whenever deemed necessary. Such committees are subject to the approval of the Board of Directors and shall cease to function as soon as the specific tasks for which they have been created have been completed.

Article V

Meetings of SCAHPERD

Section 1. Annual Business Meeting

- a. There shall be at least one business meeting of SCAHPERD each year to be held in conjunction with the Annual Conference.
- b. The Board of Directors shall choose the specific time and place of the annual business meeting.
- c. Special meetings of SCAHPERD may be called at any time by the President with the approval of the Board of Directors. The membership shall be notified one month in advance.
- d. The President is responsible for preparing the agenda.
- e. *All Professional, Honorary Life, and Retired Professional members and the Affiliate member designee shall have voting privileges. All members shall be allowed speaking privileges. *(Approved 11/95 SCAHPERD Business meeting)
- f. Members present at an officially called business meeting of SCAHPERD shall constitute a quorum.

Section 2. Board of Directors

- a. There shall be at least three meetings annually of the Board of Directors. Two of the meetings must be in person. Other meetings may be conducted using appropriate technology. During meetings which are not in person, all members must be able to speak and be heard by all in attendance.
- b. An agenda shall accompany the call to meeting.
- c. Speaking privileges shall be granted and controlled by the SCAHPERD President. Special rules may be set by the president for meetings using technology.

- d. Arrangement of seating shall provide for segregation of voting members when deemed necessary by the President or a majority of the Board of Directors.
- e. A quorum of the Board of Directors shall be half the voting members, plus one.
- f. The President shall vote only to break a tie or cause a tie.
- g. Members of the Board may be represented by proxy at a regular meeting of the Board provided the member(s) who cannot attend an official meeting notify the SCAHPERD President and receive his/her written approval for the proxy prior to the beginning of the meeting. In the case of associations, the proxy must be an officer and a voting member of the association's board. An exception may be made for the SCAFP advisor who may proxy for either the SCAFP president or vice-president.

Section 3. Manner of Acting

At the Annual Business meeting, a quorum shall consist of all members present for any matter requiring a vote. A successful vote requires a majority of those members present, unless a greater proportion is required. At regular Board of Directors' meetings, any matter to be voted upon requires a quorum of voting members.

Section 4. Voting by Mail

Any action which may be taken at a meeting of members may be taken without a meeting by mail vote conducted in such a manner, as the Board of Directors shall determine. At least three weeks must be allowed to distribute and collect votes. Those members voting on an officially conducted mail vote of the SCAHPERD Membership shall constitute a quorum.

- c. Professional members may purchase a three-year membership for one hundred and twenty-five (125) dollars. Three-year memberships may be purchased on the professional member's next renewal date.
- d. Such dues shall be due and payable annually at the time of the annual conference or at the date of application for membership. Distinctive membership cards shall be issued only upon payment of dues.

Section 3.

SCAHPERD income shall be shared with the Associations according to a formula approved by the Board. No more than 25% of real income shall be allotted to the associations.

- a. Each year, while approving the budget, the Board of Directors shall determine the percent of real income from the previous year's budget that shall be deducted for the contingency fund.
- b. Each year, while approving the budget, the Board of Directors shall determine the percent of the base amount each association will be given from the figure derived in 3.a. (i.e., from the contingency fund).
- c. Based upon designated professional memberships (first choice) there shall be a membership allotment to associations of $7.00 for each designated first choice membership (an allotment of $11.00 will be given to each association for each member who selects the same association as a first and second choice). Second choice professional membership allotment to the association is $4.00. The future professional association shall receive an allotment of $5.00 for each future professional member. The transfer from retirees' membership fees to the association(s) of choice will be set at a flat rate of $6.00. If the retiree checks two associations, each association will receive $3.00. The transfer from K-12 Institutional Membership will be the same for first and second choice membership allotment listed above, but multiplied times three. Membership funds shall be transferred to associations in January and June of each year.

- d. When any public or private funding, including grants, is received in the SCAHPERD organization, the Board of Directors shall determine, on a case-by-case basis, an administrative fee not to exceed 15% of the total funded.

Article IX

Procedures for Amending

Section 1.

The Constitution and By-Laws may be amended at any regular business meeting of SCAHPERD by a two-thirds vote of the members present, provided that the proposed amendments were sent to the members three weeks in advance of the meeting. Articles and sections may be re-numbered or re-lettered by the Board of Directors without a vote by the membership when such changes do not result in any substantive changes in the meaning or intent of the Constitution or By-Laws.

Section 2.

When the proposal is not initiated by the Constitution Committee a minimum of seven (7) SCAHPERD members must sign a request for amending the Constitution or By-Laws.

Section 3.

The Board of Directors shall determine the procedures for putting properly submitted amendments before SCAHPERD at its annual meeting.

Article X

Operating Rules

ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER, NEWLY REVISED, shall be the guide for all parliamentary procedures and other matters of business not specifically covered by the Constitution and By-Laws of SCAHPERD.

Article XI
Tax Free Exemption

Section 1.

This organization is organized exclusively for educational purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 2.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, this organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 3.

Upon the dissolution of this organization, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the corporation, the remaining assets shall be distributed as stated in Article V, Dissolution of SCAHPERD in the Constitution.

Section 4.

However, if the named recipient is not then in existence or is no longer exempt from federal income tax, or is unwilling or unable to accept the distribution, then assets shall be distributed to an organization which has established its tax-exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
